

Remembering the 104th
Anniversary
Of the Armenian Genocide
April 24, 1915

In tribute to the 1.5 million victims of the Armenian Genocide and in memory of my grandfather Albert Janjigian, who survived the genocide but didn't live to see it recognized in the United States

"I should like to see any power of the world destroy this race, this small tribe of unimportant people, whose wars have all been fought and lost, whose structures have crumbled, literature is unread, music is unheard, and prayers are no more answered. Go ahead, destroy Armenia . See if you can do it. Send them into the desert without bread or water. Burn their homes and churches. Then see if they will not laugh, sing and pray again. For when two of them meet anywhere in the world, see if they will not create a New Armenia."

- William Saroyan
